Interweaving the technical textile industry

Welcoming its 8th edition in 2021, Techtextil India has established itself as the foremost B2B trade fair for technical textiles, nonwovens and composites. With an upward trend in exhibiting space, exhibitors and visitors, the show has proven to be an ideal platform to meet new customers, bring your products to new markets and elevate your brand's position.

With the objective of making business more convenient, the 2021 edition will be held in a hybrid format, i.e. a physical expo will be held in conjunction with the virtual event. The last edition connected 190 exhibitors with 4,446 visitors marking itself as the perfect platform to network with new markets in the Indian Subcontinent. To continue this legacy, the new hybrid edition will help exhibitors connect with buyers beyond geographical boundaries making it a lot easier to do business with qualified buyers and much more.

Make 2021 your best business year with our hybrid edition.

We displayed a lot of products at Techtextil India which were earlier launched at Techtextil Frankfurt. The products gained a lot of interest from the visitors which included our existing clients and a few potential customers. We look forward to participating in the next edition too.

An opportunity awaits

01

India's USD 16 billion market accounts for only 6% of the global market thereby creating an untapped opportunity to expand your technical textile business in Indian and overseas markets

02

With "sanitisation" becoming the new normal and the recent production of 4.5 lakh of PPE kits in India, the demand for medical textiles is at an all-time high waiting to be addressed

03

Meet your potential clients looking for sourcing options from the Geotech, Agrotech, Sporttech and Mobitech segments which comprise 49% of total visitors to Techtextil India

04

Take advantage of favourable government schemes like the national Technical Textile Mission and venture into the technical textiles business

05

Connect with clothing manufacturers at Techtextil India who comprise of 35% of total visitors who are sourcing locally due to the current import restrictions

Reaching new heights with the last edition

192 exhibitors

4,446 visitors from 12 countries

Space growth from 2015 – 2019 (Gross sqm)

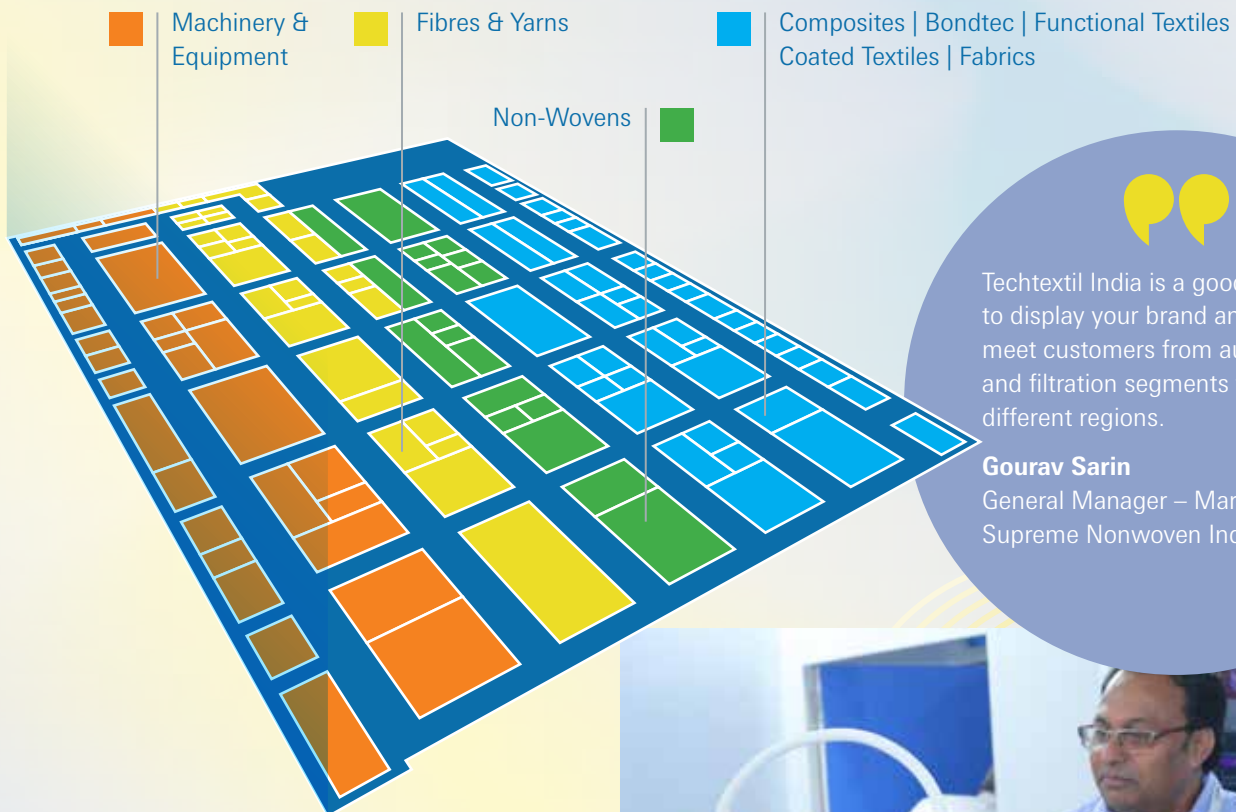

We are very happy to be a part of Techtextil India. We gained a lot of mileage with good end users and reseller inquiries from the industry. This platform has helped us identify many projects and generated 40 to 50 inquiries which will be converted to deals. We will continue our association with Techtextil India in the future.
